

The Flat Stanley Project

Name Delegate Michael Smigiel Date Oct 24, 2005

Our Adventures

When Flat Stanley arrived in the mail, I knew just who to introduce him to. The President of the United States! His name is George Bush. He lives in Washington, D.C. in a big house called The White House. Maybe some of you have seen it or even been to it! The President is the leader of our country. The 3 of us had a nice time together.

Best Wishes,

Delegate Michael D. Smigiel

P.S. Flat Stanley actually met "Flat Bush" a life-size cardboard replica of President Bush.
